Total Amount Owing for expenses including GST	$ 12,155.00

THIS ACCOUNT IS PAYABLE WITHIN 14 DAYS OF THE BILL DATE

This account has been rendered in accordance with our engagement agreement with you. Interest at 5.6% is payable in accordance with our engagement agreement on accounts which are more than 30 days overdue.

Legal Profession Uniform Law (Act)*Your rights in relation to legal costs

If you are not a commercial or government client within the meaning of the Act, the following avenues are open to you if there is a dispute about our legal costs:

- discuss your concerns with the responsible partner;
- request an itemised bill within 30 days after the date on which the costs become payable. Please note that if the total amount in the itemised bill exceeds the amount in the lump sum bill, we may be able to recover the higher costs if the matter proceeds to an assessment by a costs assessor or a determination by the NSW Legal Services Commissioner;
- apply for an assessment of the legal costs by a costs assessor in the NSW Supreme Court within 12 months after a bill is given to you. You may be entitled to apply after this time if the Supreme Court determines that it is just and fair to do so; and
- make a complaint to the NSW Legal Services Commissioner within:
  - 60 days after the costs were payable; or
  - 30 days after we comply with a request for an itemised bill.

The Commissioner may accept a complaint up to 4 months after these dates if we have not commenced legal proceedings in respect of the costs. There are monetary limits on the amounts of the bills that can be dealt with by the Commissioner.

For more information about your rights, please refer to the website of the Law Society of NSW.
